

House Resolution No. 1991

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives occasionally pause in their diverse daily endeavors in order to recognize such outstanding Show-Me State residents as Kay Miles of Clinton; and

Whereas, Kay Miles has attained considerable distinction as the author of several history books, a former First Lady of Clinton, and a former columnist for the Bethesda-Chevy Chase Tribune; and

Whereas, a resident of Washington, D.C. earlier in life, Kay Miles is justifiably proud to be known as the beloved wife of Mayor Daniel B. Miles, Sr., now deceased; loving mother of Daniel B. Miles, II, Ellen Miles-Taylor, Mahlon White Miles, Jane Kathleen Miles-Smith, and Frank W. Miles; mother-in-law of Kathy Miles; and devoted daughter of Mahlon Neil White and Kathleen Kelly White; and

Whereas, a delegate to the 1952 Democratic Convention in Chicago, Kay Miles today is an active member of the Clinton Study Club, Holy Rosary Church, and Daughters of the American Revolution; and

Whereas, Kay Miles is universally praised for her vast knowledge of Golden Valley history and her expansive memory of historic Clinton and Henry County; and

Whereas, Kay Miles prepared for her diverse endeavors in life by graduating from Warsaw High School, attending William Jewell College for two years, and then graduating from the University of Missouri-Columbia School of Journalism in 1948 with an addition major in Spanish; and

Whereas, Kay Miles is a well-traveled citizen who has witnessed many of the defining moments of American history since her birth in her maternal grandparent's home on Decoration Day in 1927; and

Whereas, Kay Miles will be honored by the Clinton Chamber of Commerce during April 2005 in light of her many years of unselfish community service and unparalleled support of Henry County events and activities; and

Whereas, it is fitting and proper that the Missouri House of Representatives should acknowledge milestone achievements in the lives of such preeminent citizens as Kay Miles:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the well-deserved selection of Kay Miles for recognition as an outstanding Clinton citizen by the Clinton Chamber of Commerce and to convey to her this legislative body's most heartfelt best wishes for continued personal and professional success for many more years to come; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of Kay Miles of Clinton, Missouri.
